

Jesus told a story about two sons who were asked to help out – one said ‘yes’ and then didn’t help, the other said ‘no’ but then changed his mind and helped. I wonder which one pleased the Father. Read the story below and then think.... What is Jesus saying through this story?

